

What's in store?

With Virgin Atlantic Flightstore

June is packed with exciting updates to help you (and your clients) go further. From locking in guaranteed Virgin Atlantic fares all the way to 2027, to redeeming Sky High Club points on Delta and Virgin Atlantic flights, there's more value than ever on offer.

Plus, a powerful new global partnership is set to connect India to North America and Europe like never before. Catch all the details in this month's round-up.

A powerful partnership
takes flight

IndiGo partners with Delta, Air France-KLM and Virgin Atlantic to connect India to the world

India's booming aviation market just got a global boost. The four leading airlines have signed a Memorandum of Understanding to create a world-class partnership. Together, they'll link India's growing domestic network with the UK, Europe, and North America.

Whether it's business in New York, a holiday in Paris, or family in Delhi, your clients will benefit from greater choice, seamless connections, and a consistent experience across continents.

Four carriers, one vision

- IndiGo brings unmatched reach across 80+ Indian cities
- Delta offers broad transatlantic access and US coverage
- Virgin Atlantic adds UK strength and long-haul flair
- Air France-KLM connects through its powerful European hubs

Big news just touched down

Sky High Club rewards now go further with Virgin Atlantic and Delta

There's a new reason to celebrate! Sky High Club members can now redeem points on Virgin Atlantic and Delta Air Lines flights, meaning points now go the extra mile.

What a fantastic way to turn hard-earned rewards into incredible journeys.
