

What's in store?

With Virgin Atlantic Flightstore

September was packed with exciting milestones, rewards, and opportunities - and we couldn't have done it without you.

From the launch of our guaranteed Out of Date Range fares to Orlando until 2028, to celebrating Delta Air Lines' 100 years of excellence with rewards for you, there's been plenty to shout about.

Guaranteed fares up until 2028

Last month, we took things to the next level with the launch of our guaranteed Out of Date Range fares - now available right up until 2028. That means your clients can lock in their magical Orlando escape years in advance with deposits starting at just £79.50.

Even better, getting there is easier than ever.

With direct flights from London Heathrow (LHR), Manchester (MAN), and Edinburgh (EDI), your clients can jet straight to the heart of the fun.

Orlando is the ultimate family-friendly destination - and now it's just a small deposit away.

Rewarding you

As Delta Air Lines marked an incredible 100 years of aviation excellence, we turned up the celebrations with rewards for you.

£5 Prezzy vouchers were snapped up with every return booking ticketed to New York and one lucky winner came away with 300 Sky High Club points (worth £300). Every booking made through Virgin Atlantic Flightstore and logged on Sky High Club helped make this celebration a huge success.
